Why Instruct Us

At RG Law, we are proud to be an award-winning law firm committed to excellence, transparency, and outstanding service. We understand the specific needs of public sector bodies and commercial organisations, including the importance of compliance, accountability, and efficiency.

Our diverse and experienced team of conveyancers, led by Tina Khanna, Conveyancing Director, and Uba Ngenebo, Solicitor, bring extensive expertise in property and land acquisitions. Their knowledge and leadership ensure that every legal option is fully explored to deliver the best possible outcome for your organisation.

We recognise that public sector bodies often operate under strict frameworks and reporting requirements. Our teams are fully equipped to comply with any matrices or reporting structures required, ensuring your governance standards are always met.

Technology underpins our modern approach. Through our secure online portal, clients can access key information and track progress in real time, providing transparency and peace of mind.

Tina Khanna Khanna - Conveyancing Director

Alongside this, we understand the value of human connection. Whether by telephone, online meetings, or in-person discussions, we adapt our communication to suit your organisation's needs and ensure clear, effective dialogue at all times.

As part of the framework, public sector organisations can access our award-winning legal services with confidence in our quality and compliance. For commercial clients, our service is designed to minimise risk, enhance efficiency, and support your strategic objectives.

At RG Law, our mission is simple: to deliver a bespoke, client-focused service that goes beyond expectations. We actively invite feedback throughout the process to ensure we remain aligned with your needs, and we will not compromise on the standard of excellence we set for ourselves.

What Our Clients Say

"Stellar service and communication – Abbi was my case manager and was fantastic from start to finish, even through some challenging moments! Excellent communication and value for money! Definitely recommend"
